

ALL BUILDING A FINE RESIDENCE.
A New Yorker to Have a Palatial Home in Orange County.
TRAVEL IN MILITARY STYLE.
Six Ohio Volunteers Enroute Home in a Four-Mule Wagon—Some Recent Weddings—Delegate to the Reunion—Improvements.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., April 27.—Special.—Mr. Sidney P. Sibley, formerly of this city, son of the late General H. H. Sibley and brother of Mrs. Helen Sibley White, widow of the late Major W. Seymour White, has taken charge of the Enterprise, published at San Antonio, Tex., which is the official organ of the Texas Wool Growers' Association.

The Lyne Milling Company has pulled down the old mill buildings at Liberty Mills on the Rapidan and will erect new roller mills in their stead. The company is also building a new dam across the Rapidan.

PALATIAL RESIDENCE.
Mr. W. G. Newman, of New York, who recently purchased the "Mt. Athos" estate in Orange county, is preparing for the construction of a residence to cost about $40,000. He will put in a system of water works, an electric light plant and lay off the entire property into a handsome park, making it when completed, one of the most attractive spots in the State.

Hon. C. Talliferro has been appointed by Grimes Camp of Confederate Veterans of Orange county a delegate to the Grand Encampment of United Confederate Veterans which convenes at Charleston, S. C., May 10th.

MARRIED IN ORANGE.
Mr. William Tinsley, of Culpeper and Miss Rosa Tinsley, daughter of Mr. Henry Tinsley, were married this week at the home of the bride in Orange county.

The peach crop will be a total failure in this section, but apples will be abundant.

Mr. Charles Payne, a prominent citizen of this county, is extremely ill at his home near the Wilderness.

Mr. Peyton B. Plaug and Miss Cora Lee Stiers, both of this city, were married last night. Rev. J. J. Stump officiating. Mr. Luther C. Walker was best man and Miss Carrie Sellings maid of honor.

TRAVEL BY MULE.
Six members of the Second Regiment, Ohio Volunteers, who were mustered out in March, Ga., passed through here in a large wagon drawn by four mules, traveling in military style, en route home. At Washington, they will call on President McKinley and present a letter of introduction from Colonel J. A. Kuert, of their regiment. They propose publishing a book of their trip with illustrations.

AFTER A PARDON.
The Mother of a Shenandoah Convict Circulates a Petition.

WOODSTOCK, VA., April 27.—Special.—The aged mother of Edward Higgs, who was sent to the penitentiary at Richmond, in 1880, to serve eighteen years for the murder of Alexander Kite, is circulating a petition praying for his pardon. It has been unanimously signed by prominent citizens all over Shenandoah county and will be forwarded to Governor Taylor.

Higgs is a half-witted fellow and this fact had much to do with saving him from the gallows. Kite was shot to death in a lonely spot on the mountain side, east of New Market in the spring of 1880. He had been a suitor for the hand of a daughter of Kite's, when they had a lover's quarrel refused to return a handkerchief that she had slipped him to have. Higgs was at this time engaged in chopping wood on the mountain and Kite went to the place and demanded the handkerchief. An altercation ensued which terminated in the tragedy. Higgs is said to be a model prisoner and has the destination, if it may be so termed, of the march to meals at the penitentiary.

The local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy have been much pleased for some time over the fact that they had secured the money to erect a monument to the Confederate dead lying in the cemetery. The sum of $500 has been decided on.

The monument will be erected this summer and unveiled in the fall. The chapter have raised almost $400 towards the project.

Messrs. J. N. Pravel and J. H. C. C. C. have been appointed by Shenandoah County U. S. Marshal, delegates to the Charleston reunion.

Both the North and Massachusetts mountains have been on fire for a week, much timber and brush has been destroyed.

GOSHEN FURNACE TO BLOW IN.
Will Resume After Two Years' Idleness—Visit to Natural Bridge.

GOSHEN, VA., April 27.—Special.—It has recently been learned from good authority that the furnace at this place, which has been idle for the past two years, will resume operations in the near future and that employment to about two hundred men.

This furnace is the largest in this section of country, having a capacity of two hundred tons of pig iron daily.

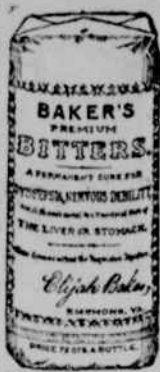

Mr. H. D. Turner, of Columbus, Ohio, the former president of a number of Ohio capitalists, were here last week in the interest of the new scheme.

Hon. James A. Frazier, N. G. McComick and quite a number of their Chicago and New York friends, whom they have been entertaining at the Rockbridge Alum Springs for the past week, left here this morning for a special train over the Chesapeake and Ohio via Clifton Forge to visit Natural Bridge and Lexington. The party will return over the Baltimore and Ohio via Staunton.

The meeting which has been held at the Presbyterian church during the past week by Rev. Mr. Young, of Bell's Valley, and Rev. Mr. Hall, of Craigsville, has resulted in much good and many of our prominent young men have connected themselves with that church.

A VALUABLE TREATISE.
The Late J. Randolph Tucker's Work on the Constitution Nearly Ready.

LEXINGTON, VA., April 27.—Special.—Prof. Harry St. G. Tucker, of Washington and Lee University, who has been engaged in editing the work on the Constitution of the United States left by his father at the time of his death, the late Hon. J. Randolph Tucker, completed his work, and during this coming May the edition will be issued in two volumes from the press of Callahan & Co., of Chicago. The work contains an historical sketch of the English Constitution and an analysis of the political science at the same time the main topic is treated in a thorough discussion under five divisions which embrace The Colonial Era, The Continental Congressional Era, The Confederation Era, The Constitutional Era to 1861, and finally The Constitutional Era until very recent date. The work is very comprehensive and future students of the Constitution will find it as interesting to them as it will be to the general reader. Critics who read the

A LYNCHBURG CHARTER.
New Marble Company with a Big Capital—The Next Postponed.

LYNCHBURG, VA., April 27.—Special.—Judge Christy, of the Circuit Court, this morning granted a charter to the Summers Marble Company, for the purpose of quarrying, manufacturing, shipping and selling prepared marble in its forms, and all other materials for building purposes, also including the right to sell or dispose of ship, city, county and State rights. The capital stock is for not less than $300,000 nor more than $300,000 divided into shares of the par value of $100 each.

The real estate to be held by said company shall not exceed 200 acres, except when purchased or held to satisfy debt due the company. The principal office is to be in Lynchburg, with the privilege of establishing branch offices at such places as the business of the company may require. The names of the officers for the first year are: Thomas N. Davis, president; George P. Watkins, vice-president; Thomas D. Davis, secretary and treasurer. Board of Directors—Thomas N. Davis, George P. Watkins, Clinton DeWitt, James J. Gordon, Payne, J. M. R. Lewis, J. R. Kyle, J. R. Gilliam, and George L. Fleming.

Petitions are being circulated and numerous signed requesting President McKinley to reappoint Postmaster Watkins L. Moorman at the expiration of his term next February. Mr. Moorman was appointed by President Cleveland, and succeeded Mr. James M. McLaughlin February 1, 1897. The Republican candidates for the next appointment are: Mr. McLaughlin, Dr. John P. Thompson, and it is said that Captain J. H. Wilson will also enter the contest.

CUMBERLAND POLITICS.
Young Democrats Tired of Dividing Offices with the Republicans.

ADRIANCE, CUMBERLAND COUNTY, VA., April 27.—Special.—It has been falling since yesterday afternoon. Farmers are pretty well up with their work. Corn planting about over in this section. Tobacco plants rather late, making the outlook for early planting gloomy. The wheat crop not very promising.

The fight politically in this county will be very lively. Hereafter there has been a mixed ticket, the Republicans getting the clerk and treasurer, but the young Democrats of the county have determined to put up a straight ticket and make the fight.

The people are heartily in favor of the convention and having a say in the election of United States Senator.

Rev. John B. Davis, Jr., who has been evangelizing work at Hot Springs, has accepted a call from the Cumberland and Jamestown Presbyterian churches and will begin his pastoral work this Sunday in May.

Miss Martha Womack and Miss Minnie Garrett, young ladies of this neighborhood, have been teaching in Matthews county, returned to their homes a few days ago; also, Mr. J. C. Blanton, a student of Richmond Medical College.

MR. JAMES MEDLEY DEAD.
The Clerk of Halifax Circuit Court Answers His Maker's Summons.

SOUTH BOSTON, VA., April 27.—Special.—James Medley, Esq., clerk of the Circuit Court of Halifax county, died last night at his home in Houston. He was at his place of business and apparently well all day yesterday, until some time after noon when he complained slightly of a pain in his side, at midnight he was dead, the result of heart failure.

He was about seventy-five years of age, and had been clerk for a number of years, having been elected to the office by popular vote, and was one of the best of his kind in the county. He was a candidate for reelection at his late term, but was defeated by a narrow margin.

He was one of the school of "old Virginia" and was one of the most generally known and respected citizens of the county. He was a candidate for reelection at his late term, but was defeated by a narrow margin.

CHORAL WEDDING IN PETERSBURG.

Mr. Irvin King and Miss Mittie S. Pleasants Wed in Grace Church.

PRETTY SCENE AT BUENA VISTA.
Violet Wedding of Rev. Corydon W. Trawick and Miss Winifred Paxton—Some Pretty Marriages Celebrated at Other Points.

PETERSBURG, April 27.—Grace Episcopal church was filled with a fashionable and brilliant assemblage this afternoon at 5 o'clock, to witness the marriage of Miss Mittie S. Pleasants, second daughter of Mayor John A. Pleasants, and Mr. Irvin King, of Baltimore. The wedding service was one of the most beautiful, as well as one of the most impressive that has taken place here in recent years. Among the guests present were many relatives and friends of the couple from Philadelphia, Baltimore, Richmond, and other points, as well as those prominent in social, professional and business life here.

A FLORAL BOWER.
The decorations about the chancel and altar evidenced great care and taste. Palms, ferns, flowers and candelabra were so arranged as to present a scene of artistic beauty, and charming effect. Rev. John Tidout, rector of the church, performed the ceremony, which united the couple. The services were mainly choral and extremely beautiful, the bride and betrothal hymns being sung in perfect harmony by a full vested choir of forty or more trained voices.

THE ATTENDANTS.
The gentlemen acting as ushers were: Messrs. Williams T. Davis, Charles H. Peckles, and Churchill G. Pleasants, of Petersburg; Llewellyn Stabler and Edward A. Walker, of Baltimore; Percival Chambliss Pleasants, Taylor Harris and George Dillwyn Pleasants, of Richmond, all wearing wedding favors.

There were six beautiful bridesmaids—Miss Edith Stabler, of Baltimore; Miss Judith Deane, of Richmond, and Misses Mary Zimmer, Mary Meyer, Mary Beasley and Anna Griffin, of Petersburg, all becomingly attired in white organdie over pink trimmings, pink carnations, begonia hats.

The bride's maid of honor was Miss Emily Virginia Owens, of Petersburg, a lovely and charming blonde, groomed in pink organdie, carrying a bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. Edward S. King, of Philadelphia, a brother of the groom, served as best man, a four wheel drive to the Masters Lee Townes and Griffin Sandys, of Petersburg, acting as ribbon children; and Misses Catherine Pinner of Suffolk, and Dorothy Brooke Pleasants of Petersburg, as flower girls, added grace to the scene. The little brides were each attired in beautifully fitting and becoming dresses of white organdie with pink trimmings.

THE PROCESSION.
The order of entrance and march to the altar was as follows: The ribbon children, the vested chorale work, the organ, the hymn, the officiating clergyman in full vestments, the ushers and bridesmaids alternating in couples, the flower girls, the maid of honor, the bride escorted by her father, who gave her away. The march through the aisle was in perfect order, and the singing by the choir as it heralded the approach of the bride party was a feature of decided interest.

On reaching the chancel the chorists divided equally to the right and left, leaving the aisle free for the ushers and bridesmaids to pass within, where they formed in semi-circle to await the bride and groom. The groom and his best man were escorted from the vestry room into the chancel by the officiating minister.

THE CEREMONY.
The bride, groomed in white crepe de chene over white tulle, tulle veil and lilies of the valley, stood with her father in front of the chancel during the betrothal service. The bride was escorted by the choir sang a betrothal hymn and the bride entered the chancel and stood with her betrothed before the altar. Here the marriage ceremony took place, during which the soft strains of the organ were heard in the background.

The bride is the young lady of great personal charm and enjoys the love and close friendship of a large circle of acquaintances not only in her native city, but in Richmond, Baltimore and other places where she has often visited. The groom is a son of the late Henry S. King, of Baltimore, a gentleman of high character and standing, and holds an important and responsible position on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

The bride was the recipient of many rich and beautiful presents, including solid silver, cut glass, table sets, etc. To-night the bridal party and visiting guests were entertained at the Mayor's residence.

Mr. and Mrs. King left for the North on their bridal tour.

A VIOLET WEDDING.
Presbyterian Church at Buena Vista was a Scene of Beauty.

LEXINGTON, VA., April 27.—Special.—A beautiful marriage was solemnized in the Presbyterian church at Buena Vista yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, when Miss Winifred Paxton became the bride of Rev. Corydon W. Trawick.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. John M. Wells, of Staunton, Va., in the presence of a large and fashionable gathering. As the bridal party entered and departed the wedding marches were delightfully rendered on the organ by Mrs. W. H. Shirley, of Buena Vista.

The chancel was tastefully decorated with ferns, evergreens, potted plants and violets. The church was darkened to present a night scene, and lighted with colored electric lights, under predominating blue.

An archway of evergreen had been constructed and a large marriage bell, beneath which the contracting parties stood. The ushers were Mr. J. Doran McKee and Mr. Walter W. Zimmerman.

The groom is a son of Hon. Peter P. Weaver, of Emporia, Greensville county, and the bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Davis, of this city. The couple left on a bridal trip North.

TWO WEDDINGS.
Miss Gleason and Mr. Matthews, and Miss Green and Mr. Huffman.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 27.—Special.—Mr. John Claudius Matthews, a prominent and prosperous Miss Mattie Gleason, of Norfolk, and Miss Matthews, were married yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's father, on Ridge street, Dr. H. W. Tribble performed the ceremony in the presence of a few friends.

Miss Matthews left on the 4:15 east-bound Chesapeake and Ohio train for a ten days' tour.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at the Methodist parsonage, Mr. Samuel H. Huffman and Miss Julia Green were married by Dr. William B. Edwards. Mr.

erman, of Buena Vista, and the flower girls were Miss Bessie Campbell, of Lynchburg, and Miss Anna Paxton, of Buena Vista, both daintily dressed in white.

THE ATTENDANTS.
The maid of honor was Miss Flora Campbell, of Lynchburg, a cousin of the bride, who was groomed in violet organdie trimmed with ribbons and lace to match, and carried purple violets. The bridesmaids were Miss Bessie Glasgow, of near Buena Vista, Miss Isabelle McClellan, of Buena Vista, and Miss Margaret Witt, of Lexington. They wore white organdie with violet ribbons, and carried purple violets. The groomsmen were Rev. Robert C. Gilmore, of Staunton, Mr. A. Terry Shiple, and Mr. William R. Kennedy, of Lexington.

The bride entered the church with her brother, Mr. Edward Preston Paxton, of Buena Vista, by whom she was given away, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Professor Edwin W. Fay, of Washington, and Lee University, Lexington. She wore a gown of white satin en train, trimmed in lace and pearl buckles, and a long tulle veil caught with orange blossoms, and carried rich roses.

THE RECEPTION.
Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, at which were present the bridal party and a limited number of relatives and friends.

The bride is an exceedingly pretty and attractive young lady and is deservedly popular in church and social circles of Buena Vista. She is a daughter of the late Edward Paxton, of the well-known family by that name of Buena Vista. She was married three years ago to the pastor of the Presbyterian church at Buena Vista, and is a talented and popular preacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Trawick left on the afternoon train for a Northern and Eastern tour of several weeks, after which they will make their home at Buena Vista.

WEAVER—DAVIS.
Mr. William Channing Weaver and Miss Maude Lane Davis Married.

PETERSBURG, VA., April 27.—Special.—A pretty wedding took place this afternoon at the residence of the bride, on Adams street. The parties to this union were Mr. William Channing Weaver and Miss Maude Lane Davis. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John M. Wells, of Staunton, Va., in the presence of a large and fashionable gathering. As the bridal party entered and departed the wedding marches were delightfully rendered on the organ by Mrs. W. H. Shirley, of Buena Vista.

The chancel was tastefully decorated with ferns, evergreens, potted plants and violets. The church was darkened to present a night scene, and lighted with colored electric lights, under predominating blue.
